Tells Instantly If Barrel & Cylinder Are In Perfect Alignment-Match & Service Grade Available

Lets you know instantly if a revolver barrel and cylinder are in perfect alignment and if cylinder crane or yoke has been sprung, thus throwing axis of each out of line with axis of barrel bore . . . for timing - "accuracy jobs" . . . locating cause of lead splatter . . . professional service inspections. An excellent tool to use when demonstrating to a customer "why"! The handle with knurled grip end is threaded to take any of the interchangeable heads, with sizes carefully selected to indicate very small misalignments. The .38 caliber heads are available in two diameters, one for Match guns that must be dead on for best performance and one for Service guns which aren't always thoroughly clean and don't have to meet quite as fine an accuracy standard. And, there's a special head for the S&W K-22 which has a slightly undersized bore.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Always wear safety glasses when using the range rods to protect your eyes.
- Do not attempt to modify or alter the range rods in any way.
- Ensure that the interchangeable heads are securely attached to the handle before use.
- Avoid using the range rods on firearms that are not compatible with the specified calibers.
- Be cautious of sharp edges on the heads and handle during handling and use.
- Follow all local laws and regulations regarding the use of firearms and related accessories.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Preparation

- Ensure the revolver is completely unloaded.
- Gather the necessary components: the handle and the appropriate head for your caliber.

2. Attaching the Head

- Select the correct head for your revolver caliber (e.g., .32 S&W, .38 caliber).
- Align the threaded end of the head with the handle.
- Screw the head onto the handle until it is securely attached.

3. Using the Range Rod

- Insert the range rod into the revolver barrel.
- Gently push the rod until it reaches the cylinder.
- Observe the alignment of the barrel and cylinder. If they are misaligned, adjustments may be necessary.

4. PostUse Care

- Carefully remove the range rod from the barrel.
- Clean the range rods after use to maintain their condition.
- Store the range rods in a safe, dry place, away from children.

Disposal Instructions
