Mission-Ready; Built To Take The Abuse Of Tactical Operations

Extra pouches for your M4 rifle case or Adjustable-Length case help you keep plenty of spare magazines where you need them—with your rifle. Available in Black, with separate models for straight-body 20- and curved 30-round magazines. The pockets on both models are deep enough to accommodate Brownells Tactical Magazines and other mags fitted with the Magpul Ranger® Floorplate. MOLLE attachment system on the back has two sturdy nylon web straps with fold-over snap closures that loop securely through the exterior straps on the MOLLE-compatible gear. Separate flaps with hook-and-loop closures let you retrieve one mag without exposing the others to the elements. Made from the same tough, water-resistant 1000 denier Cordura Plus nylon as the M4 case.
