Shooting Accessories > Range Gear > Magazine Storage Pouches

High Speed Gear's TACO Rifle Molle mounted magazine carrier uses injection molded polymer sides, Cordura™ front and back, and shock cord lacing to lock just about any rifle magazine into place. USGI, HK, PMAG, ARC, FAL, AK 30/ 40, LR20 and M14 magazines are all held securely and deployed easily and silently on demand. The TACO® Rifle magazine carrier even works for certain radios, flash bangs and smoke grenades and provides this versatility while taking up only 3" horizontal inches on your mounting platform. The pouch maintains a positive, adjustable grip on its contents without additional securing systems. However, if additional retention is desired webbing tabs are sewn in on the top for use of "over the top" bungee retainers and loop Velcro is sewn on the interior if the users wishes to use adhesive hook on the magazine.
