Eliminates The Hassle Of Buying Parts Separately

Handy kit contains the three key components to give your Kalashnikov the "Magpul Look" - and improved ergonomics for better shooting comfort and control. Includes the MOE AK skeleton fixed stock that accepts Magpul AK Cheek Risers (sold separately) for extra customization, and a snap-on MOE AKM handguard that accepts M-LOK rails (also sold separately) for vastly improved accessory-mounting versatility. Completing the package, is a MOE AK Grip that's ergo-shaped to give you a secure, yet comfortable hold on your Kalashnikov. "Plum" color approximates the color of certain Eastern European wood AK stocks.
