Shooting Accessories > Range Gear > Magazine Storage Pouches

High Speed Gear's Double Decker TACO® magazine carrier combines their modular rifle mag pouch and a modular pistol mag pouch into one secure unit. This unique pouch can securely hold a variety of combinations of mags and other accessories. The original TACO® forms the base and USGI, HK, PMAG, ARC, FAL, AK 30/ 40, LR20 and M14 magazines are all held securely and deployed easily and silently on demand. The HSGI TACO® even works for certain radios, flash bangs and smoke grenades providing versatility while taking up only 3" horizontal inches on your platform. On top, they attached a Pistol TACO®. This versatile pouch will hold almost any pistol magazine. Single stack, double stack; it makes no difference. 1911, HK 45, M9/Beretta 92, Glock, XD mags are all held securely and deployed easily and silently on demand. The HSGI Pistol Taco® can also hold a variety of multi-tools and flashlights. Both Taco pouches are made of Cordura, an injection molded polymer and shock-cord. The pouches both maintain a positive, adjustable grip of the mag and do not require any other securing systems unless desired. Webbing tabs are sewn in on the top for use of "over the top" bungee retainers (not included). Additional loop Velcro® is sewn in the inside of the rifle pouch if the user wishes to utilize adhesive backed hook Velcro on their magazine body for added security.
