A Secure Free-Float Railed Handguard With Extras

Bravo Company's BCM QRF Quad Rail Free Float handguard puts no pressure on the barrel, helping to preserve your rifle's accuracy, while providing four, full-length MIL-STD 1913 Picatinny rails for mounting all the accessories you need. At the core of the BCM QRF handguard is a mechanical indexing system that locks the top rail in the 12 o'clock position and helps prevent unwanted movement caused by heating of the barrel nut. The BCM QRF handguard also has alpha-numeric slot markings on all four Picatinny rails to aid in repeatable positioning of accessories. There's a total of four limited-rotation QD sling swivel sockets. Available in 7", 8", 9", 10", and 12" lengths Machined 6061-T6 aluminum alloy Hardcoat anodized finish (Mil-A-8625F, Type III, Class 2) Slim - 2.12" wide 1.3" inside diameter Included barrel nut (same as used on KMR and MMR handguards) will fit over barrels up to 1" O.D. Precision machined from high strength, lightweight aluminum, the Bravo Company BCM QRF handguard is a solid accessory-mounting platform that won't compromise your rifle's accuracy.
