Mount Your Picatinny Accessories on M-LOK? Handguards

The Bravo Company BCMGunfighter 1913 Light Mount M-LOK® is an adapter that lets you easily install a light (or other accessory) with a MIL-STD 1913 Picatinny mount on your M-LOK handguard. It will let you position the light flush or cantilevered on either side of the handguard, in the 3 or 9 o'clock position. With the BCMGunfighter 1913 Light Mount M-LOK®, you don't have to permanently change the light's built-in attachment system. Remove it from your M-LOK® handguard and quickly re-install it on your Picatinny gear at anytime. Fits most common weaponlights designed for Picatinny rail attachment. Multiple mounting holes allow you to choose placement on handguard that's best for you. Aluminum construction. Matte black anodized finish. Installation hardware included. Weighs less than 1 oz. Bravo Company's BCMGunfighter 1913 Light Mount M-LOK® is durable and lightweight, with a small form factor and snag-free surfaces, so it expands your rifle's versatility without adding unwelcome bulk.
