Everyone Needs a Spare Mag & Extra Rounds

One of the biggest benefits of the SIG Sauer P238 is its diminutive size, which enables the gun to be carried easily and discreetly nearly anywhere. However, the small size of the P238 means that ammunition capacity is limited, so having a spare round on board or reload on hand is critical. The SIG Sauer P238 Extended .380 ACP Magazine makes both possible. This design adds one round over the standard, flush-fit 6-round magazine that ships with the gun, providing 7 rounds of fight-stopping .380 ACP. The magazine features a silver finish.
