Bring Your Henry Rifle into the 21st Century

For more than 150 years, the lever-action rifle has remained largely a classic wood-and-steel design. Though this setup hearkens back to a simpler time, it limits the flexibility of a user's platform. Now, with the Henry M-LOK Handguards, consumers can take their lever guns to the next level. The Henry M-LOK Handguards are machined from 6061 aluminum and features a hard-coat anodized finish that helps it stand up to heavy use in the field. The slim design of the handguard preserves that nimble feel of a solid lever gun, but this unique design allows for the attachment of modern-day lasers and tactical lights. Weight: 5.5 ounces Length: 11 inches Color: black 5-slot M-LOK Picatinny rail included Made of 6061 Aluminum Available for Henry 45-70 Rifles with handguard cap, Henry Pistol Calibers (.38/.357 Magnum, 44 Magnum, 45 Long Colt), and Henry 30-30 Rifles with handguard cap Each Henry M-LOK Handguard should be installed by a qualified Henry lever-action rifle gunsmith.
