Rifle Parts > Grip Parts > Pistol Grips

One element that many AR owners fail to focus on is the design of their gun's pistol grip. Having a comfortable, ergonomic, intuitive design can enhance control, and the TangoDown BG-18 BATTLEGRIP is built to offer enhanced control. Each TangoDown BG-18 BATTLEGRIP features a reduced grip angle, which is designed to alleviate pressure on a user's wrist. In addition, a unique backstrap design allows users to place their firing hand higher on the receiver, allowing for easier control. To ensure a firm hold on the gun, the TangoDown BG-18 BATTLEGRIP is textured with an aggressive finish designed to anchor firmly in the hand. The black, polymer construction is designed to resist heat and impacts and, like the company's other BATTLEGRIP designs, is backed by a "no-fail" field reputation.
