Eliminate Stress Points in Your Shooting Position

TAC PAD Ever built a position at the range and found that, with all the strain on your body, you just couldn't hold steady enough? With the WieBad Tac Pad, you can fill the gaps and cracks in your joints and stay in that extended shooting position for the best-possible shot. In particular, the WieBad Tac Pad is designed to fill in the area between your elbow and body or at the back of the knee when shooting from the kneeling position. The bag is also sized right to fill gaps between your limbs and body when shooting from an unsupported position. Measuring 9 x 11 x 4 inches in size and weighing 1 pound, the WieBad Tac Pad is available in MultiCam Cordura exterior.
