A Gun Case Designed to Take Punishment

Capitalizing on the success of its line of hard-sided gun cases, Explorer Cases developed its new Red Series of gun cases, which are built with a stronger, hardier construction to ensure that it secures and protects your firearms and accessories from the punishment of travel in the field. Even with its enhanced construction, these Red Explorer Cases are made with a budget price in mind, so you can afford to protect and secure your firearms. Each Red Explorer Case is constructed from durable polypropylene material, which is thick and sealed well enough to make the case waterproof, dustproof, crushproof and shockproof. In fact, this case is TSA-approved, so you know it'll protect your gear from the rigors of air travel! The cases also features ball-bearing wheels for easy transport and includes four different padlock points, as well as contoured handles. These Red Explorer Cases also include a soft gun bag that can be used separately for casual travel to and from your range, or they can be used as an additional layer of protection when trekking afield with your secured firearm. Cases in this lineup include the SBR option, sized for the IWI Tavor, most SBRs and AR-15 pistols The RA9413 case provides plenty of room for your standard AR-15 carbine, as well as shorter shotguns and bullpup rifles. Finally, the lengthy R11413 offers plenty of room for your long-barreled, scoped precision rifle.
