A Lower Parts Kit Without a Trigger or Grip for Your AR .308 Build

Building up one of Aero Precision's M5 .308 AR lower receivers? Well, you'll need all the small bits to build a functioning lower, but let's be real. You're not going to go full mil-spec with this lower receiver, especially since most AR-15 drop-in triggers also work for the AR .308 lower. So why pay for what you won't use? That's why this Aero Precision AR 308 M5 Lower Parts Kit doesn't include a fire-control group or a pistol grip. The kit will also work on DPMS-pattern lowers, but the takedown and pivot pins will stick out further. Here's what you'll get: Takedown/pivot Spring Takedown/pivot detent M5 .308 Takedown pin M5 .308 Pivot pin M5 .308 Bolt Catch Bolt Catch Spring Bolt Catch Buffer Bolt Catch Roll pin Safety Selector Safety Selector Spring Safety Selector Detent Buffer Retainer Buffer Retainer Spring Magazine Catch Body Magazine Catch Spring Extended Magazine Catch Button
