An Enhanced Magazine Release With a Mil-Spec Profile

Some AR owners prefer to keep the same size and shape of their mil-spec mag release, since it provides less opportunity for snagging on gear. However, that doesn't mean they shouldn't be able to take advantage of improved options! Enter the Armaspec AR-15 Enhanced Combat Button Mag Release. Each of these enhanced magazine releases features the same size and shape as the mil-spec button, but the surface of the release features an improved texture, so users can still get a more positive engagement on the release surface. The Armaspec ECB Mag Release can be used on any 5.56/.223 or 7.62/.308 AR receiver and is covered by the company's lifetime warranty.
