Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Use Only Compatible Components: Ensure you use the internal components from your existing BX1 10/22® magazines. This product is the magazine housing only.
- Inspect Before Use: Always inspect the magazine body for any signs of damage or wear before each use.
- Avoid Overloading: Do not exceed the recommended capacity of 30 rounds (three BX1 magazines) as this may lead to malfunction.
- Proper Handling: Treat the magazine body as if it is loaded at all times. Always point it in a safe direction.
- Use in Safe Environments: Only use this magazine body in appropriate shooting environments where it is legal to do so.
- Follow Local Laws: Be aware of and comply with local laws and regulations regarding firearm accessories.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Ensure that you have all necessary components from your existing BX1 10/22® magazines.
- Align the internal components with the magazine housing.
- Securely attach all components to the magazine body as per the instructions provided with your BX1 magazines.
- Ensure that the magazine body is properly assembled before use.

2. Usage:

- Load the magazine body with three BX1 10/22® magazines, ensuring each is properly seated.
- To use, simply eject the used magazine and rotate the magazine body to access the next set of rounds.

- Use the clear body to monitor your round count visually.
- Utilize the oversized belt loop attachment for handsfree carry. Adjust the positioning for a comfortable fit.

Disposal Instructions

- Responsible Disposal: When the magazine body reaches the end of its life or is no longer needed, dispose of it responsibly.
- Recycling: Check local regulations for recycling options for plastic and metal components.
- Hazardous Waste: Do not dispose of the product in regular household waste if it contains hazardous materials. Follow local guidelines for hazardous waste disposal.
