When You Need to Carry a Rifle Without Looking Like You re Carrying a Rifle

The Apparition Bag from Grey Ghost Gear, and what it carries, can be our little secret. Sometimes you want to be able to carry your SBR or broken-down carbine without drawing the attention that a two-point sling carry does. Enter this pack. It's been specifically designed to tote around your 10.5-inch or shorter SBR, or even a longer, or suppressor equipped SBR without imprinting or weapon signature that will give you away. The Apparition Bag has the aesthetic of a regular ole daypack, and it can serve that purpose perfectly well, in any of the four pockets that aren't the main. They can carry water, rations, a change of clothes, Yahtzee, night-vision goggles, tactical glasses, whatever you need. The two-tone exterior doesn't bely the tactical nature of the pack, blending in with crowd. 1200 cubic inches Available in black, black diamond, brown, tan, or cayan 27" - 33" main compartment height 64 ounces The Apparition Bag magic is in that main compartment though. On the front side of the main compartment, two magazine pouches ensure you have the ammo to stay in the fight. On the backside, there are three keeper straps that let you lash down your SBR without disassembly, or even a 16-inch gun when broken down. It even has an bottom extender that can accommodate slightly larger footprints, without giving away too much profile to draw attention.

Apparition Bag Safety Instructions

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Apparition Bag from Grey Ghost Gear. This guide provides essential safety instructions to ensure the safe and effective use of your bag. Please read this document carefully before using the product.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure the bag is used only for its intended purpose of carrying firearms and related equipment.
- Regularly inspect the bag for wear and tear. Replace if any damage is found.
- Keep the bag away from heat sources and open flames to prevent material damage.
- Store the bag in a cool, dry place when not in use.
- Be aware of your surroundings when using the bag in public spaces to avoid drawing attention.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- When carrying a firearm, ensure it is unloaded unless you are in a controlled environment where it is safe to have it loaded.
- Always use the keeper straps to secure your SBR or firearm inside the bag to prevent movement during transport.
- Avoid overloading the bag. Adhere to the manufacturer's weight limit of 64 ounces to maintain comfort and safety.
- Use the magazine pouches only for their intended purpose. Ensure magazines are securely placed to prevent accidental discharge.
- If using the bag for purposes other than firearm transport, do not exceed the recommended load for other items.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Loading the Bag:

- Open the main compartment and position your SBR or firearm carefully.
- Use the keeper straps to secure the firearm in place without disassembly.
- Place magazines in the designated pouches at the front side of the main compartment.
- Utilize the four additional pockets for carrying personal items such as water, food, or other essentials.

2. Adjusting the Bag:

- Adjust the shoulder straps to fit comfortably on your body.
- Ensure the bag is snug but not overly tight to allow for mobility.
- If necessary, use the bottom extender to accommodate larger items securely.

3. Carrying the Bag:

- Always carry the bag with both straps for better weight distribution.
- Be mindful of your posture while carrying to avoid strain on your back and shoulders.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the bag in accordance with local regulations for fabric and plastic materials.
- If the bag is damaged beyond repair, consider recycling the materials if possible.
