Safety Instruction Guide for BLACKHAWK Single Mag Case for Double Stack Mags

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the BLACKHAWK Single Mag Case for Double Stack Mags. This product is designed to securely hold magazines of various sizes while ensuring user safety. Please read this safety instruction guide carefully to understand how to use the product safely and effectively.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always inspect the mag case before each use to ensure it is in good condition.
- Do not use the mag case if it is damaged or has visible wear.
- Keep the mag case out of reach of children and unauthorized users.
- Use the product only for its intended purpose: to hold double stack magazines.
- Follow all local laws and regulations regarding the carrying of magazines and firearms.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Ensure that the magazines are properly seated in the mag case before carrying.
- Do not overstuff the mag case or attempt to carry more magazines than it is designed to hold.
- Avoid exposing the mag case to extreme temperatures or harsh chemicals, as this may compromise its integrity.
- When not in use, store the mag case in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight.
- If you experience any difficulty with the mag case, discontinue use immediately and seek assistance.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Adjusting the Belt Clip:

- Locate the adjustable beltclip hook on the back of the mag case.
- Adjust the clip to fit the width of your belt. Ensure a secure fit to prevent accidental detachment.

2. Inserting Magazines:

- Hold the mag case with the opening facing upward.
- Insert the magazine into the case, ensuring it is aligned properly.
- The builtin tension spring will securely hold the magazine in place.

3. Wearing the Mag Case:

- Slide your belt through the belt clip or attach the belt loops as needed.
- Position the mag case along your waistline for comfort and accessibility.

4. Removing Magazines:

- To remove a magazine, grasp the case firmly and pull the magazine out with a smooth motion.
- Ensure that you are in a safe area when removing the magazine.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the mag case responsibly. If the product is no longer usable, consider recycling it if possible.
- Follow local regulations for the disposal of plastic materials.
