Safety Instruction Guide for 1911 9RD 38 SUPER MAGAZINES

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the 1911 9RD 38 Super Magazines. This guide provides essential safety instructions and guidelines to ensure the safe use of this product. Please read this document carefully before using the magazines.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the magazines are used only with compatible firearms, specifically Colt 1911 models and their copies.
- Always handle magazines and firearms with care, treating them as if they are loaded.
- Store magazines in a secure location, away from children and unauthorized users.
- Regularly inspect magazines for signs of wear or damage before each use.
- Follow all local laws and regulations regarding the ownership and use of firearms and ammunition.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Do not exceed the magazine's capacity of 9 rounds.
- Avoid using damaged or wornout magazines, as they may pose a safety risk.
- Do not modify or attempt to repair the magazines. Only use genuine Colt replacement parts.
- When loading or unloading the magazine, keep the firearm pointed in a safe direction.
- Ensure that the magazine is properly seated in the firearm before use.
- Always keep your finger off the trigger until you are ready to fire.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation

- Ensure the firearm is unloaded and pointed in a safe direction.
- Insert the magazine into the magazine well of the firearm until it clicks into place.
- Pull the slide back to chamber a round after loading the magazine.

2. Usage

- Load the magazine by pressing down on the follower and inserting the rounds from the rear.
- Ensure that each round is seated properly before storing or using the magazine.
- After use, remove the magazine from the firearm by pressing the magazine release button.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of any damaged or wornout magazines in accordance with local regulations.
- Do not throw magazines in regular household waste. Instead, check for recycling programs or hazardous waste disposal options in your area.
