Eliminates Flex, Speeds Cleaning

Large, 5/16" diameter, nylon-coated, steel rods decrease flex and provide easier cleaning of rifle bores .35 caliber and larger. Ball bearings in the handle let the rod follow the rifling. 35C rod has a 12-28 thread that accepts Dewey Jags and Adapters. Comes with 12-28 to 8-32 tpi adapter and 35J rifle jag. 50 BMG combines a 44" coated section with a stainless steel extension for 62" of cleaning length. A ball bearing handle lets the rod follow the rifling.

Specifically designed for use on your 50 BMG. Only the 44", coated section touches your bore; the additional 18" provides additional torque and length to clear oversize actions. Includes 50J, .50 caliber brass jag and brush adapter to accept 8-32 accessories.
