Wontons The WONTON is the first product that Spiritus Systems has developed under their "Vehicle/Mobility" product segment. Mobility and organization is key to successful planning and execution of both Tactical Military Operations as well as Adventuring. The Wontons were developed specifically to organize all of your things. Design The WONTONS are built with a mesh material which keeps them lightweight and allows items to rapidly dry. The bags were not meant to be waterproof, there were built to organize items within larger deployment profiles such as vehicles or kit bags. The diagonal zipper allows the pouch to be opened up while remaining relatively flat and easy to access. A single 3/4" webbing loop is provided so the user can hang the pouch with a carabiner and to assist with zipping and unzipping the pouch. Two Zipper pulls are provided for redundancy, even if one fails, you can always zip it closed with the other. These things will last a lifetime. Use Case WONTONS were designed to organize your life. They can be used to organize vehicle kit or deployment kit bags. Their uses are almost endless.
