BROWNELLS DOUBLE FACE FILE CLEANER The Brownells Double Face File Cleaner is an essential tool designed to maintain the efficiency and longevity of your files by effectively removing metal filings and debris that can clog the file's teeth during use. Regular cleaning with this tool ensures that your files continue to perform optimally, providing clean and precise cuts in your gunsmithing and metalworking projects. Description and Features: This file cleaner features a double-sided design, equipped with fine nylon bristles on one side and bent steel bristles on the other. The fine nylon bristles are ideal for clearing away light debris and surface particles, while the bent steel bristles are effective for dislodging more stubborn filings embedded between the file's teeth. The ergonomic handle provides a comfortable grip, allowing for controlled and efficient cleaning without damaging the file's cutting surfaces. Specifications: Dimensions: Approximately 8 inches in length Bristle Material: Fine nylon on one side; bent steel on the other Handle: Ergonomically designed for comfortable grip Customer Insights: Customers of the Brownells Double Face File Cleaner appreciate its dual-bristle design, which offers versatility in cleaning various types of files. The fine nylon bristles are praised for their gentleness on fine-toothed files, while the bent steel bristles effectively clean coarser files without causing damage. Customers also note that regular use of this cleaner helps maintain the sharpness and effectiveness of their files, ultimately extending the tools' lifespan. Incorporating the Brownells Double Face File Cleaner into your maintenance routine ensures that your files remain in optimal condition, providing consistent performance and precision in your gunsmithing and metalworking tasks.
