Safety Instructions for the 1911 Magazine Bumper Pad Metalform

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the 1911 Magazine Bumper Pad Metalform. This product is designed to enhance the functionality of your Metalform magazines by providing added protection and comfort. It is crucial to follow the safety instructions outlined in this guide to ensure safe usage and to maximize the product's benefits.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the bumper pad is compatible with welded base magazines only.
- Always inspect the bumper pad before use for any signs of damage or wear.
- Keep the product out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Report any unsafe products or accidents to the appropriate authorities.
- Check for recall updates on the EU's Safety Gate platform.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Use the bumper pad only as intended, which is to provide protection and finger rest for Metalform magazines.
- Avoid using the bumper pad on magazines that do not have preexisting holes for installation.
- Do not modify the bumper pad or the magazine in any way, as this could compromise safety and functionality.
- Handle the bumper pad and screws with care to avoid injury during installation.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Gather Required Tools:

- Phillips screwdriver (not included).

2. Prepare the Magazine:

- Ensure the magazine is empty and clean before installation.

3. Align the Bumper Pad:

- Position the bumper pad at the bottom of the magazine, aligning it with the preexisting holes.

4. Attach the Bumper Pad:

- Insert the provided screws through the bumper pad into the preexisting holes of the magazine.
- Use the Phillips screwdriver to tighten the screws securely, ensuring the bumper pad is firmly attached.

5. Final Check:

- Inspect the installation to confirm that the bumper pad is securely fastened and that there are no loose parts.

6. Usage:

- The bumper pad is now ready for use. It will provide additional finger rest and protect the magazine during falls on hard surfaces.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the bumper pad responsibly. If it is no longer needed or damaged, consider recycling it if possible.
- Follow local regulations for the disposal of plastic and metal products.
