Introduction

Thank you for choosing the PRESS TYPE SHELLHOLDERS REDDING #19 SHELLHOLDER. This product is designed to ensure safe and effective use in reloading cartridges. Please read this safety instruction guide carefully to understand how to use this shellholder safely and effectively.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the shellholder is compatible with your press and cartridges before use.
- Always handle the shellholder and associated tools with care to avoid injuries.
- Keep the shellholder out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Regularly inspect the shellholder for any signs of wear or damage before each use.
- Follow all local regulations and guidelines regarding the reloading of ammunition.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Always wear appropriate safety gear, including safety glasses and gloves, when using reloading equipment.
- Ensure that the work area is welllit and free of distractions.
- Do not exceed the recommended cartridge specifications for the shellholder.
- Avoid using the shellholder with cartridges that are damaged or show signs of wear.
- Do not attempt to modify or alter the shellholder in any way.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Ensure the reloading press is turned off and unplugged if applicable.
- Select the appropriate shellholder for your cartridge (44 Magnum, 444 Marlin).
- Insert the shellholder into the press according to the manufacturer's instructions, ensuring it is securely in place.

2. Usage:

- Place a clean and undamaged case into the shellholder.
- Follow the reloading press instructions for seating bullets and resizing cases.
- After use, remove the shellholder from the press and clean it to remove any residue.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the shellholder responsibly. If it is damaged or no longer usable, follow local regulations for disposal of metal products.
- Do not throw the shellholder in regular trash if it is still functional; consider donating it to a local shooting club or recycling facility.
