Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Hunter Bottom Metal for your Remington 700 MDT Accessories. This guide provides essential safety information to ensure safe use and optimal performance of your product. Please read this guide carefully before installation and use.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the product is installed correctly according to the provided instructions.
- Always handle the product with care to avoid injury.
- Store the product in a safe and dry place when not in use.
- Regularly inspect the product for any signs of wear or damage.
- Do not use the product if it appears damaged or malfunctioning.
- Keep the product out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Report any unsafe products or accidents to the relevant authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Always confirm that the magazine release lock is functioning properly before use.
- Adjust the tension control on the magazine lock to your preference to prevent accidental drops.
- Avoid overtightening screws or components during installation, as this may cause damage.
- Be cautious when maneuvering through tough terrains to avoid losing grip or control of the rifle.
- Use the product in accordance with local laws and regulations regarding hunting and firearm use.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation Steps:

- Begin by ensuring that the rifle is unloaded and safe to handle.
- Remove the existing bottom metal from the rifle stock.
- Align the MDT Hunting Bottom Metal with the stock and secure it using the provided screws.
- Ensure that all screws are tightened evenly, but avoid overtightening.
- Test the magazine release lock to confirm it is functioning correctly.

2. Usage Steps:

- Insert the magazine into the bottom metal until it clicks into place.
- Adjust the tension control on the magazine lock to your desired setting.
- When ready to use, ensure that the magazine is securely locked in place.
- If necessary, practice removing and inserting the magazine in a safe environment before going on your hunt.

Disposal Instructions

- At the end of the product's life cycle, dispose of it responsibly according to local waste management regulations.
- Do not dispose of the product in regular household waste.
- Check for any recycling programs in your area that accept metal products.
